

Annual Day of Bal Bharti Public School celebrated

■ Our Correspondent
JAITHARI, Dec 10

THE Bal Bharti Public School, MB Anuppur celebrated its magnificent and reverberating Annual Day and prize distribution function 'SANSKRITI- The Hue of Culture' on December 9. The theme was befitting with the thought to express absolute unadulterated portrayal of talent and vigour, the endpoint of one's wandering.

The event was graced with the presence of the Chief Guest Dr N S Hari Narayan Moorthy, Dean, Faculty of Pharmacy, Indira Gandhi National Tribal University, Amarkantak, Madhya Pradesh and guests of honour, V N Bhamidipati, Head Operation and Maintenance, HPPPL, and Father Jose Antony, Joint Secretary, DIOCESAN Educational Society, Jabalpur. The celebration was initiated by Stra depicting obelance to the Almighty. The progressive annual report was read by the Principal of the school, Anoop Dixit which was well supported with the power point presentation.

The programme was an amalgamation of various hues and the students spread the vibrant colours of the incredible Indian Culture. The beautiful rendition of Koli Dance, Rasleela, Bengali dance and Aheer dance in the traditional attire was spell binding.

The glittering bonanza of 'Sagvarsh'-the Hindi Skit depicted the struggles of a common man and 'An Insalt that Created an Empire'- The English Skit was a true portrayal of humility's victory over pride.

Brj Raasleela depicting Lord Krishna's childhood was enacted. The other mesmerising performances of the evening were the rendition of Incredible Dance, Twinkling Dance, Malayalam Dance and Step-to-Step Dance.

A view of cultural programme presentation by students during the annual function of Bal Bharti Public School, Anuppur.

Invitees giving away prize and certificates to meritorious student during the Annual Function of Bal Bharti Public School, Anuppur.

Theme based dance from the earth's paradise captivated the guests. The hypnotising performances added colour to the festive occasion and the synchronised dance movements to the foottapping music of Bhangra enthralled the audience. Toppers of various Scholastic & co-scholastic areas were rewarded by the guests. The cultural evening ended with a vote of thanks proposed by the Head Boy, Priyanshu Gupta which was followed by the National Anthem.